LISTENING TO AND REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

THE LESSONS

THE FIRST READING

Isaiah 9:1-4

The Reader says

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

There will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people who walked in darkness
 have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
 on them light has shined.

You have multiplied the nation,
 you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
 as with joy at the harvest,
 as people exult when dividing plunder.

For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

THE RESPONSE

Psalm 27:1, 5-13

Read responsively by half verse (People's responses are in bold)

God is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear? *
God is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

One thing have I asked of you, O God; one thing I seek: *
that I may dwell in your house all the days of my life,

To behold your fair beauty, O God, *
and to seek you in your temple.

For in the day of trouble you shall keep me safe in your shelter; *
you shall hide me in the secrecy of your dwelling and set me high upon a rock.

Even now you lift up my head * above my enemies round about me.

Therefore I will offer in your dwelling an oblation with sounds of great gladness; *
I will sing and make music to you.

Hearken to my voice, O Most High, when I call; *
have mercy on me and answer me.

You speak in my heart and say, "Seek my face." *
Your face, O God, will I seek.

Hide not your face from me, *
nor turn away your servant in displeasure.

You have been my helper; cast me not away; *
do not forsake me, O God of my salvation.

THE SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 1:10-18

The Reader says

A reading from Paul's Letter to the Corinthians.

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

Matthew 4:12-23

Deacon or Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

“Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—
 the people who sat in darkness
 have seen a great light,
 and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

THE SERMON

Father Gregg Morris

PRAYING TOGETHER

The Leader and People pray responsively (the People's responses are printed in bold)

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The people remain standing as able for the Prayers

CONFESSiON AND ABSOLUTION

Deacon

Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy, welcoming sinners and inviting them to the table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Deacon

Most merciful God,

All

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The People remain standing as they are able

The Celebrant continues

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we sing with joy:

SANCTUS

WLP 857

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry.

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said:

“Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said:

“Drink this, all of you:

this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Celebrant and People

Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!

The Celebrant continues

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit’s power, may be a people of hope, justice and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with blessed Andrew, Mary, and all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise. Blessed are you now and for ever.

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Celebrant and People

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

NEW ADULT FORUM

Why Did Jesus Have to Die?: The Meaning of the Crucifixion
Wednesdays, through February 11, 7:00-8:15 PM, in the Parish Hall

We say it every week, “For our sake [Jesus] was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.” But we seldom ask why Jesus had to die, or if we do, we’re not sure we can come up with a clear answer.

Adam Hamilton in his book and video series Why Did Jesus Have to Die? explores a wide variety of metaphors—penalty for sin, sacrificial offering, Passover lamb, covenant pledge, redemption, ransom, moral influence or example, self-sacrifice, victory over sin and death—to help us better understand the significance of the Cross. The cost of the book is $22.00. Make checks to St. Andrew’s with Adult Formation in the memo line, or make a donation online. Sign up in the Gathering Space. Contact Jim Hoover (jimhoover@stanfordalumni.org) with questions.

RETURN OF LENTEN SIMPLE SUPPERS FOR ALL!!

Wednesday Nights, February 25 thru April 1
6:00-7:00 PM. in the Parish Hall

Please indicate the number attending, so we know how many to set a place for. Additional columns to volunteer to bring Soup, Bread, or Salad, and to clean-up will also be on the sheet.

This is one of those events that is just fun. If you are free Wednesday night and did not sign up, please come anyway. Any questions please see Diana Rhoads (bolzdiana6@gmail.com, 630-698-6120).

SANDWICH BOARD

The sign-up sheet is out for sign-ups. Bulky items such as boxes containing chips bags, or individually wrapped cookies, and heavy items like bottled water, can be left in the stairwell outside the offices in the area designated for Sandwich Board. Just indicate your name with a post-it or other means, on the items so I'll know who I might need to contact, if necessary. If you have any questions, contact Donna Armstrong at donnadance@icloud.com or at 630.251.2790. And again, thank you!

COMMUNITY KITCHEN

The Community Kitchen has been offering a hot meal on Friday evenings at St. Andrew's since early March, 2023, and now a sack lunch on Sunday afternoons in partnership with three other churches in Downers Grove. The number of diners we are serving has steadily increased. We are thankful for the progress we have made, and we look forward to finding solutions to new challenges in the summer months.

Since the beginning, we have relied on Parishioners to provide grocery items each week for our dinner menu prep. Thank you to everyone who has donated grocery items! You are such a blessing! Thanks to your generous support, the Community Kitchen has been completely self-sustaining, and has not been a drain on the Parish's finances. Alleluia!

The need for grocery items is ongoing, however, so please continue to look for the Community Kitchen Grocery Wish-List in the Gathering Space if you're interested in picking up some items on your weekly grocery run. Also, if you'd like to be scheduled to volunteer in the kitchen on a Friday and/or Sunday afternoon(s), feel free to contact Gracia Morton at gmorton28@gmail.com for more details.

As always, please keep our Community Kitchen diners and volunteers in your prayers as we partner together, with God's help, in this ministry. Thank you!
